

Entirely New Shapes and Finishes in HURD'S STATIONERY

WE have also many new shapes and colors in the regular finishes, and many new ideas in

Wedding Stationery

The Lotus Lawn and the Lawnette are the latest finishes and shapes in the popular Hurd's Stationery for personal correspondence. These new papers will appeal to you.

We will be glad to mail you a sample book of these papers.

HAWAIIAN NEWS COMPANY, Ltd.,

"THE PIONEER PAPER HOUSE"

ALEX. YOUNG BUILDING

SOCIETY

Mrs. Gerald Johnson's Bridge Afternoon.
Mrs. Gerald Johnson entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club at her bungalow on Matlock Avenue. The house was profusely decorated in Australian and maidenhair fern. The afternoon was warm and the cool green of the ferns lent a delightful and pleasant atmosphere. The prizes were Canton plates. Mrs. Johnson's guests were Mrs. James Pine, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. McDougal, Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, Miss Edith Cowles, Miss Ethel Spaulding, Miss Lydia McStocker, Miss Priscilla Elliott, Miss Julie McStocker, Miss Betty Case, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Phleger.

Miss Lydia McStocker's Luncheon.
Miss Lydia McStocker was hostess for the Luncheon Club on Thursday. The table was simply but prettily decorated in pink and lavender asters. The afternoon was devoted to bridge. Miss McStocker's guests were Miss Edith Cowles, Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, Miss Priscilla Elliott, Mrs. Kirby Smith, Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mrs. James Pine, Miss Julie McStocker and Mrs. Harry Hepburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright's Dinner Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright entertained at one of the daintiest and most prettily appointed dinners given this season at their pretty bungalow.

on Friday evening. The table was charming with its center piece of La Marque roses and fern, beautiful china and twinkling glass. The place cards were the coat of arms of Hawaii. The candles were shaded in white, which was most charming. Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright's guests enjoyed a social hour of pleasant chatter after dinner. The guests were Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, Major and Mrs. Timberlake, Mrs. Adams and Mr. Harry Gaylord.

Major and Mrs. Wendell Neville to Entertain.
Major and Mrs. Wendell Neville are going to entertain the Wednesday Evening Card Club at their delightful home on Kinau Street next week.

Miss Ruth Anderson's Swimming Party.
Miss Ruth Anderson has invitations out for a swimming and surfing party to take place this afternoon at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Young, at Waikiki. This party is given in honor of Miss Daphne Damon, Miss Pauline Schaefer and Miss Juliette Atwater.

Miss Pauline Schaefer's Swimming Party.
On Tuesday afternoon Miss Pauline Schaefer will entertain fourteen of her girl friends at a canoeing and swimming party in honor of Miss Zeph Pischell, who is her house guest.

Angus-Ellis.
The wedding of Miss Ethel Angus and Mr. Ellis will take place the early part of July at Central Union Church.

Mr. Oswald Lightfoot's Week-end Party.
Mr. Oswald Lightfoot gave a pleasant week-end party at Wahiawa in honor of Miss Louise and Miss Pearl McCarthy, who have just come home from school. Friday afternoon the party left town, returning Sunday evening. Mr. Lightfoot's guests were Miss Louise McCarthy, Miss Pearl McCarthy, Miss Allie Lucas, Miss Violet Lucas, Miss Psyche Beny, Miss Annie Parker, Miss Pearl Littlejohn, and Miss Trumpler as chaperone. Mr. George Cassidy, Mr. Charlie Littlejohn, Mr. Shirley Bush and others.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bicknell's Card Party.
Mr. and Mrs. James Bicknell are entertaining this evening in honor of their wedding anniversary. Cards will be the pleasure of the guests. About thirty friends are expected.

Mrs. William P. Wooten a Luncheon Hostess.
Mrs. William P. Wooten was a luncheon hostess on Thursday at a beautifully appointed table. The center of the table was massed in golden shower and feathery fern. At the four corners were bohemian baskets filled with the shower, the handles being tied with golden tulle. The place cards were bits of island scenery. Mrs. Wooten's guests were Mrs.

Charles F. Wood, Mrs. Helen Cardwell, Mrs. Douglas McDougal, Mrs. James Madison Kennedy, Mrs. George Harmon, Mrs. Heisler, Mrs. Francis Blakely McStocker, Mrs. E. R. Game and Mrs. Beasom.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Smith a Bridge Hostess.
Mrs. Kirby Smith entertained the Thursday Evening Bridge Club at the Courtland. The rooms were prettily decorated in pale pink and lemon yellow oleanders. A delicious collation was served the guests at ten o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Smith's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hawley of Fort Shafter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Sheedy, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Kingsbury of the Marine Corps, Miss Priscilla Elliott, Miss Edith Cowles, Mrs. Bostwin and Mr. A. B. Clark, Jr.

The Wednesday Evening Bridge Club.
Mr. and Mrs. Clinton G. Owens entertained the Wednesday evening Bridge Club at their Thurston avenue home. Mrs. Randolph Moore was given the ladies' gift for top scoring. A cut glass olive dish, while Mr. Chester was the lucky recipient of the men's gift, a bridge set in a leather case. Mr. and Mrs. Owen's guests were Professor and Mrs. Angrew's, Mr. and Mrs. George Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel de Forest, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Young, Miss May Thomas, Miss Katherine Woodford, Mr. Will Thomas and Mr. Woodford.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davies' Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. George Davies entertained on Thursday evening at a large and elegantly appointed dinner.

Miss Kopke's Luncheon.
Miss Esther Kopke entertained at luncheon on Wednesday of this week. The table was dainty and sweet with its decoration of pale pink roses and fern. The place cards were bits of Japanese scenery. Miss Kopke's guests were Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Shetwood Lowrey, Mrs. Frederick Lowrey, Miss Beatrice Holdsworth, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Muriel Howatt, Miss Bertha Kopke and Miss Violet Steover.

Mrs. William G. Irwin's Luncheon.
Mrs. William G. Irwin was hostess at a luncheon on Friday. Covers were laid for sixteen guests. The hour after lunch was devoted to bridge.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore and Madam Lowrey are going up to Tanalua for a month to enjoy its cool breezes and mountain air.

Allan Lowrey, accompanied by friends will arrive on the Manchuria for the summer.

Mr. Vetteson's sister, Mrs. Edson of Norway, is a visitor in Honolulu. She comes to superintend a home for her brother. At present she is a guest of the Donna.

Mrs. Carl S. Holloway and Mrs. Frances Brown came in on the Ventura. Mrs. Brown brought as her guest Miss Tots Beven, who visited here last summer and became such a social favorite with the younger set.

Mr. Bliss Knapp, C. F. B., left Honolulu on the Nio this morning to continue his lecture tour of the world.

Dr. and Mrs. McChy will occupy the Doctor Pratt residence until they depart for Maui.

The next meeting of the Thursday Luncheon Club will be held at the home of Miss Edith Cowles. This luncheon club is a delightful company of young people who come together every other Thursday.

A special sale of beautiful trimmed hats will be held at Miss Power's millinery shop Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. This sale offers an opportunity to save from two to four dollars on each hat, according to style and price. The sale is to make room for new models which will be brought home from Eastern markets shortly by Miss Power. Factors on Fort street, Boston building, second floor.

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE SMART SET

Mrs. S. Northrup Castle was a departing passenger in the Honolulu. Mrs. Castle remains in Honolulu for a bit longer.

Miss Louise Lucas left in the Honolulu for a three months' visit to the mainland.

Mrs. Percy Morse left Honolulu in the Honolulu on Wednesday for a few months' trip to the mainland.

Mrs. H. H. Benton of Kohala and her two daughters left in the Honolulu for San Francisco.

Miss Ray Sheldon, who has taught the eighth grade at Punahou for the past four years, left for her home in the north on the Honolulu.

Miss M. H. Williamson, a teacher at Punahou, left in the Honolulu for her vacation.

Mrs. J. P. Cooke and children have gone to Maui for a short stay.

Miss Mudge leaves Wednesday for a three months' trip to the coast.

Mrs. Isabella Creighton leaves on the Ventura for a two months' trip to the mainland.

Miss Mollie Grace and Miss Lulu Grace leave on Wednesday for the summer to be spent in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Lewis, with their son Donald will leave for San Francisco in the Ventura, after a pleasant six months' stay among friends. Honolulu is sorry to lose this charming family if only for a little while.

Mrs. Chas. Lucas, Miss May Lucas, and Miss Harriet Lucas will leave on Wednesday for a trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. Sallie Hume Douglas will leave in the Ventura for a three months' visit to friends on the mainland.

Miss Mary Winnie will spend her summer vacation with friends on the mainland.

Miss Beatrice Holdsworth left for Kona yesterday for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. Francis Mills Swamy with her two daughters left yesterday for Kona for a short visit.

Mr. Wells and Miss Irene Wells left in the Kilauea for their home in Pahala. Mrs. Wells came to town to visit with his brother before his departure for his home in London.

Miss Edith Cowles and Admiral Cowles leave for Hawaii this evening for a short visit.

Miss Harriet Hitchcock leaves this evening for Hawaii.

Judge and Mrs. William Whitney have gone to Hawaii for a short visit.

Mrs. W. H. Wishard and Miss Blanche Wishard leave for their Kona home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Robert T. Forrest and her daughter left for their home in Hilo on Wednesday. Mrs. Forrest came to town to see Miss Margaret Forrest graduate.

Miss Irene Dickson has gone to Hawaii for a short visit.

Mrs. E. N. Holmes returned to her home in Hilo on Wednesday.

Mrs. E. A. Jones and her three daughters, Miss Helen, Miss Margaret and Miss Catherine Jones, are going to the Peninsula for two months, occupying the Governor Frear house.

Dr. and Mrs. Cowan have returned to their home on Hawaii after a pleasant visit in Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosecrans and Miss Grace Rosecrans have returned to their island home on Hawaii.

The Service bridge club has discontinued activity until the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey have moved up to Naniko for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, who are on a second tour of the world, are the house guests of Mrs. Raymond Brown at her home on Green Street.

Mr. John Galt requests the pleasure of your company at the Oahu Country Club to meet

Miss Elizabeth Carter Saturday evening July sixth nineteen hundred and twelve. Eight fifteen o'clock. R.S.V.P.

The guests of the Donna enjoyed a delightful swimming party on Wednesday evening of this week. After a delightful swim the guests returned to the Donna, where a delicious collation was served, and thoroughly enjoyed.

The Class of 1912 McKinley High School requests the pleasure of your company at its Commencement Dance to be given at the Moana Hotel Friday, June twenty-eighth. Nineteen hundred twelve. Dancing at eight-thirty.

Mrs. William Hserman leaves for her home in Hilo next week after a pleasant visit with her mother.

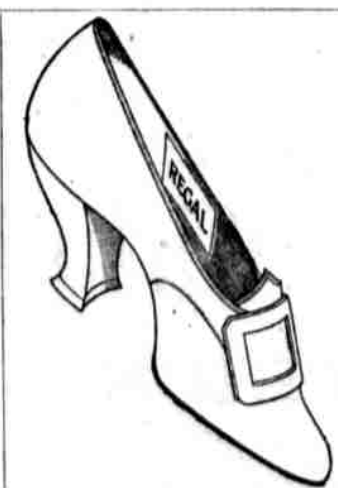

The Henry Frederick Wichmans have taken the Hall home at the peninsula for the summer and are planning all sorts of entertainment for their friends.

Mr. Evelyn Wood Low was a homecoming passenger on the Ventura yesterday. He comes especially to be present at the wedding of his sister, Miss Anabel Low, to Mr. Albert Rudell.

REGAL

Dress Pumps and Slippers

For the Fourth of July Balls

Our stock is resplendent with new styles and features in evening footwear.

White and Black Satin Pumps, Colonials, White Velback, Canvas Pumps

The styles are those being now worn in New York and Boston.

We want your trade, and will appreciate a call

Regal Shoe Store,

GEO. A. BROWN, Manager

McCandless Block

King and Bethel Sts.

It Saves Labor

Crystal White Soap

A pure white soap that will not injure the most delicate garment

Your grocer sells it